Kiwanis of Castle Rock Installation Dinner

On October 7th, our club held it's Installation of Officers Dinner at Perry Park Golf Club. We all enjoyed a wonderful dinner and great conversation.

Deb Weule, RMD Lt. Governor installed the new officers—Sam Keck as President; Tom Lambert as Treasurer; Debbie Trent as Secretary and Mark Cucarola as Past President. She made the installation enjoyable and fun with a sports theme.

Tom Lambert was presented with the Kiwanian of the Year Award. It was well deserved.

Congratulations to all the new officers and Tom.

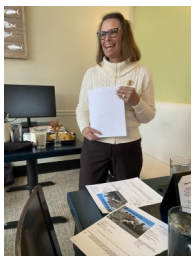

Sweet Dream in a Bag

We welcomed Robin Scurto October 19th. She and Darlene are heading the committee to plan the Community Packing event in November.

As a board member of Sweet Dream in a Bag, Robin gave us some interesting facts about the organization.

Three years ago bags cost $50 and this year the cost is $75. In the last 16 years they have given away $1.5M in bedding away. The amount of bags would fill Red Rocks twice. That is 25K bags. Each child is vetted. They are now also including air mattresses for kids who do not have actual beds to sleep on.

They now have a partnership with CASA who also work with foster children.

It was decided that today's Happy Dollars would be donated to Sweet Dream in a Bag with a match from Tom Lambert.

RMD Lusche Fellow Award
Grand Teton Award

Chris Scurto, RMD Foundation President, accompanied Robin to Present the RMD Lusche Fellow Award to Debbie Trent, & Dennis Magyar.

Dick Harding was awarded the Grand Teton Award.

Douglas County High School Key Club

The DCHS Key Club is beginning this month. Here are a few dates Kristy McNary and Bill Bragg would like to add to your calendar. We are very proud of these young students and all of their leadership abilities.

1) Key Club will be meeting in the library AFTER school this year on Wednesdays from 3:00 - 3:45.

Colorado Feeding Kids

Rocky Mountain District Kiwanis Club packing event for Colorado Feeding Kids was held on October 3rd.

The room was filled with volunteers including several members of different Kiwanis Clubs and a couple of area Key Clubs.

Dennis Magyar, Debbie Trent and her daughter and grandson participated from our club. We packed over 20,000 bags of Mac and Cheese!! Well done!
